MPC/Gateway E295-C

Performance Convertible Notebook

When powerful computing tools integrate seamlessly with working styles, users communicate more effectively and work more efficiently. The MPC/Gateway E295-C Convertible Notebook delivers the flexibility and power to increase productivity. This managed, wireless computer with a 14-inch widescreen display, offers unprecedented performance as both a conventional notebook and a Tablet PC. Use it like a standard notebook, or just swivel the screen and lay it flat over the keyboard to start writing digital notes.

The highly scalable E295-C gives IT departments the flexibility to optimize performance, weight, price, and offers up to 10.6 hours battery life. Next-generation Intel® Centrino® Duo Mobile Technology with Intel® Core™ 2 Duo Processors and long battery life options deliver extreme mobile performance. The convertible notebook is an ideal choice for business, education and government professionals who value mobile performance and flexibility.
